NOVEMBER 2015 NEWSLETTER

Headteacher: Deborah Richards B.Ed

Thank you to all the parents who have stopped to chat.

After 7 weeks as your new Headteacher I have found that your children are a real asset, being so keen and enthusiastic in their learning, they are a pleasure to teach.

Equally I have inherited a very caring and committed staff and Governing Body, who share my vision to provide the very best education and well being for your children.

We have started to make future improvements to teaching through training and support and also to make subtle changes to how we do things e.g. ability grouping.

I am very keen to further develop relationships with parents, and hope to see more of you in school at various informal events.

So, have an enjoyable half term on the countdown to Christmas.

Regards

Deborah Richards
